Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Thank you for your letter of November 7, 1973. I indeed do remember the interesting talk we had.

Quite frankly, we do not have many doubts about winning the lawsuit with regard to our refusal to carry a commercial for the motion picture, "Executive Action." Despite what some of the reports have indicated, our position was not that we refused to accept any commercial announcements for this film, but rather that the particular commercial submitted did not meet our standards.

Therefore, I do not think that we will have any difficulty in defending against the lawsuit, although you may be right about our hearing about it for a long time.

Sincerely,

Howard Monderer
